

January 24, 1984

LB 623, 286

the bill.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Wesely. I hate to say it but the Call is raised.

CLERK: Mr. President, I believe the amendment has been withdrawn.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Did you say you wish to withdraw the amendment? Okay. Any objection? It is withdrawn. Senator Landis, did you wish to talk to the bill any further? Okay. Okay, a machine vote has been requested. All those in favor of advancing the bill signify by voting aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 30 ayes, 1 nay, Mr. President, on the motion to advance the bill.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The bill is advanced. LB 286.

CLERK: Mr. President, 286, I do not have E & R amendments. I do have an amendment from Senator Vickers to the bill, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vickers.

SENATOR VICKERS: What page in the Journal is that?

CLERK: 333, Senator.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President and members, LB 286 deals with tuition payments for foreign exchange students in Class 1 districts, mainly in Class 1's, and we have discussed that on General File. The amendment that is printed in page 333 of the Journal would open to tuition payments the payment for students attending schools considerably more than it is in the state right now. I will give you a little background as to why this amendment is printed and why I need to discuss it a little bit. Senator Wesely came before the Education Committee last week with a bill to indicate that if a student leaves a district that they should be able to continue their education in that district the remainder of that school year without having to pay tuition if their parents, in fact, move out of the district. Last summer, or